Season 2026

ADELAIDE CHAMBER SINGERS

Welcome to our 2026 Concert Series

Adelaide Chamber Singers (ACS) is widely respected as Australia's finest chamber choir—the embodiment of the art of choral chamber singing. ACS was founded in 1985 by Dr Carl Crossin OAM (Artistic Director and Conductor 1985–2021) and has been a passionate and innovative contributor to music making for 40 years.

Led since 2022 by Artistic Director and Conductor Christie Anderson, the ensemble's membership is drawn from amongst Adelaide's best and most experienced ensemble singers. From the beginning, ACS has existed to showcase the highest order of musical interpretation, to transport our audiences to new heights, and to challenge the very boundaries of what choral music can be. Our combined voices echo the majesty of the great cathedrals and concert halls of the world, but our sound and our soul is proudly grounded in the intimacy and warmth of our home city of Adelaide.

ACS has been honoured by a number of awards including a CreateSA Ruby Award for “sustained contribution by an organisation” (2011), and a Ruby Award for the world premiere season of Watershed: The Death of Dr Duncan (2022) at the Adelaide Festival. ACS' eight international tours have also garnered international accolades including “Choir of the World at Llangollen 2013” at the Welsh International Musical Eisteddfod. ACS is frequently invited to support and collaborate with a wide range of artists including The Rolling Stones, The Tallis Scholars, Kronos Quartet, Hilltop Hoods, Greta Bradman, and Katie Noonan. As part of the UKARIA A Cappella Academy, ACS has worked with former King's Singer Tim Wayne-Wright (2022), along with two incredible British ensembles, The Gesualdo Six (2023) and VOCES8 (2024). A strong and consistent advocate for Australian music, ACS has proudly commissioned over 30 new works from established and emerging composers.

Recent achievements include the launch of Rising Voices, a highly successful emerging artist ensemble. In October 2023, ACS hosted the inaugural Adelaide Chamber Choir Festival to tremendous acclaim, cementing Adelaide's place as “the choral capital of Australia” (InReview).

In 2025 ACS collaborated in the Adelaide Festival Opera Innocence, and in the 2025 APRA AMCOS / Australian Music Centre National Art Music Awards, ACS won the South Australian Luminary Award for sustained contributions to commissioning and artistic excellence; Choral Work of the Year for All Flesh Is Fire, composed by Anne Cawrse with text by Kate Llewellyn AM; and was a Performance of the Year finalist, also for All Flesh Is Fire.

“We are honoured to bring music—both timeless and contemporary—to life, celebrating the profound joy of singing together and sharing it with you, our valued audience.”

This season, Adelaide Chamber Singers presents a rich and diverse program spanning centuries, styles, and cultures. Through this vibrant tapestry of sound, we explore what it means to be citizens of a global community, embracing the myriad of cultural influences that shape and inspire us all.

Each curated concert program invites you on a journey—one that moves beyond the noise of everyday life toward spaces of stillness, peace, and renewal. Music opens doors to healing and reflection, providing moments to reconnect with joy, hope, and the deeper meanings that sustain us.

Across the series, you will encounter themes that spark our shared humanity—tales of love, humour, wonder, and grace—those subtle yet powerful gifts that evoke hope and uplift the spirit.

Through our shared experience of song, we celebrate the universal language of music as a source of connection, inspiration, and celebration. We warmly invite you to join us in this musical journey, as we explore together the enduring power of the human voice, reminding us that life, even in its quietest moments, is worth celebrating.”

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

Adelaide Chamber Singers meet and make music on Kurna Yerta. We pay our respects to Elders past and present. We recognise and respect the Kurna community's cultural heritage, beliefs and relationship with the land as continuing and important today. We also extend that respect to other Aboriginal Language Groups and other First Nations.

These are tales gathered from the rich tapestry of folk traditions, seen through the eyes of composers who capture the essence of place, culture, and memory.

From the haunting beauty of English folksongs to melodies born of forgotten landscapes, we sing of love and longing, of solitude and of nature's quiet wisdom, of ghosts that linger and communities that gather in firelit evenings. What we share has been passed down through generations—a living echo of people and place, woven into song, and now offered to you.

Featuring contemporary arrangements of traditional folksongs from the British Isles, collected by Ralph Vaughan Williams and Cecil Sharp, Veljo Tormis' Ingrian Evenings, and tales by Michael McGlynn, Orlando Lassus, Clement Jannequin and more.

Existing between earth and sky, we find ourselves drawn to the constellations that silently turn above us, and to the music that rises from the ground beneath our feet. Stellar is a reflection on connection: the mystery of the universe where the constellations above mirror the music deeply rooted in the ground below.

At its heart is the acclaimed and powerful song cycle All Flesh is Fire by composer Anne Cawrse and poet Kate Llewellyn AM, exploring themes of grief, ageing, memory and transformation through life's seasons.

This is joined by music that traces the arc of light across the heavens—from the radiant harmonies of Ēriks Ešņvalds' Stars and Joe Twist's Hymn of Ancient Lands, to the inspired voices of Keren Terpstra, Brooke Shelley and Blake Morgan, all of whom reflect on stars as the guiding light to find home.

An aura is a luminous body that surrounds your physical one, and this luminosity threads throughout Rising Voices' performance of this eternally beautiful Requiem. Featuring soprano Brooke Window, baritone Jeremy Tachell, and organist Josh van Konkelenberg, Fauré's Requiem offers a vision of rest and peace unlike any other.

Composed not as a dramatic statement on death, but as a gentle prayer for eternal light, it shimmers with serenity and quiet hope. With its soaring Pie Jesu and radiant In Paradisum, Fauré's setting is intimate, luminous, and profoundly human, inviting us to reflect not on endings, but on the promise of peace beyond.

In a world where grace is in short supply, music remains one of our most powerful sources of humanity, liberation and connection. Join Adelaide Chamber Singers for a celebration of joy and the season, featuring two of J.S. Bach's most beloved choral masterpieces: the radiant Magnificat and the exuberant motet Singet dem Herrn ein neues Lied (Sing to the Lord a new song). Overflowing with energy, devotion, and brilliance, these works remind us that amidst chaos, music still offers the grace and the freedom to rejoice.

Wild

in the making...

In this open rehearsal, we explore what it truly means to sing folk music. These songs—each created to tell the story of place, a person, or a moment—place the singers at the heart of a community's traditions, culture and values. It is incredible how varied the artforms are, and how each piece reveals something unique about the world at a singular point in time.

Join us for an aural journey through the centuries and across continents, as we uncover the rich diversity and enduring spirit of folk song.

in the making...

Join us for the first open rehearsal of Rising Voices as we delve into one of the most inspiring requiems ever written—Gabriel Fauré's Requiem. In this session, we shall explore how our ensemble's unique sound takes shape—how our sonority and resonance can create an experience for the listener unlike any other.

Throughout the rehearsal, we shall experiment with different vocal configurations to enhance Fauré's artistic intentions—and you, our audience, will play an important role as our guide in this creative journey.

support ACS

Adelaide Chamber Singers relies on your generous donations in our continued quest for musical excellence and the commissioning of South Australian music.

REACH NEW AUDIENCES

Your donation will help us introduce others to the art of vocal chamber music, bring the highest order of musical interpretation to different spaces and enable our ensemble to perform in new venues.

NURTURE NEW RISING VOICES

Your support helps to continue our legacy through Rising Voices. Together we provide a training ground of knowledge and expertise as well as a platform for these remarkable vocalists to perform.

COMMISSION NEW MUSIC

Commissioning new music ensures the future of the art of choral music. Our commitment to commissioning Australian and South Australian composers, and performing work that owes its unique sound to the state we call home, is enabled through your generosity.

Your contribution will ensure new music reaches our audiences every year and our artform evolves. This is an important part of our higher calling.

DONORS

ACS is grateful for the support and future intention of our Bequestors:
Professor Susan Magarey AM and Professor Sue Sheridan
Professor Junia Vaz de Melo

We welcome your donation in whatever way is easiest for you. Large or small, every cent makes a difference. We are grateful to our past, present and future donors for their contributions which support our work through the Adelaide Chamber Singers Supporters Fund. All donations over $2 are tax deductible.
